

A Letter to NAU MAud Students of 2018 Batch Concerning Thesis Schedule

Dear students,

As the novel coronavirus pneumonia outbreaks in several countries all over the world, the opening date of new semester has not been decided. Health safety is the priority now. So let's be patient and stay strong to believe that we'll eventually win this campaign against virus.

We'd like to kindly remind and require that you work hard on the progress of your thesis writing. Do not lag behind the required schedule. Keep close contact with your supervisor. Get their professional academic suggestions and focus on the betterment of your paper. Following is the important academic arrangement.
